The rules how to design the appearance of scientific articles in the compendium:

1. The editorial collegiums receive the articles to be printed; when they satisfy the requirements of Higher Attestation Commission (HAC) (see the Ordinance of the Presidium of HAC of Ukraine # 7-05/1 of 15. 01. 2003).

2. The scientific works, which were not published before, are being received for publishing in the journal. The authors are responsible for the accuracy of citing and scientific facts, figures and other information presented in the articles.

3. The articles, whose authors don't have a scientific degree, are accompanied with a critical review of scientific chief or with an extract from the record of proceedings of the chair (department) sitting, which recommends the article being published.

4. The article's manuscript is forwarded as a copy (in Ukrainian or in Russian) printed on one side of a sheet of paper (format A4). The electron variant of an article is to forward together with the manuscript. It should be a file named as following: Name article, printed in the text editor MS Word for Windows (formats doc. or rtf.). The electronic variant of an article is forwarded on a disc, CD or per e-mail to the address: visnuk_ird@ukr.net.

5. The articles are to be edited and squeezed in 8-15 pages as following:

- cipher УДК (italic type, equalization at the right edge);
- next row is a title of the article (big characters and bold font, put in the center);
- name and surname of the author (italic bold, at right edge); next raw – name of the city (italic, leveled at the right edge);
- annotation and the key words should be in Ukrainian (italic font);

- skipping a row, the main text is being printed: font Times New Roman, size 14 points, without transference, interlinear interval 1,5, indent shift – 1 cm; every margin 2 cm;
- references in text should be given within square brackets, where the ordinal number of source and page are to indicate, for example: [5, 87], where 5 – number of source in the list of literature, 87 – page. Reference to several simultaneous sources is given in the following way: [3; 5; 7] or [3, 145; 5, 25; 7, 348]. The sources in the list of references are numbered manually, i. e. without using the Word menu "Format – List – Numbered". The indication of total number of pages (for books) or page numbers for text beginning or end in the used source is obligatory (for articles).
- skipping a row, when the main text is ended, the following information is given Literature in the alphabetic order or in order of sources application in the text (no more than 10 sources). Skipping the next row, there are given the annotations (up to 5-6 rows) and the key words in Russian and Ukrainian (italic). Numbers of pages are not put in the electron variant.
